

Soccer Team Camps

Soccer Source 360 is offering a unique team training program the week of July 13-17 from 9:00-3:00 at Northrop Fields at Covenant Park. The exact program is being offered to girls teams the week of July 20-24. The team camps features the highest quality in coaching and unique team building from Terrapin Adventures.

Soccer Source 360 has contracted with Terrapin Adventure to conduct expert team building sessions. Each team will be able to select up to five team building sessions. Each team building session will last for two hours. The team coach can select the team building topics from a menu that will include leadership, communication, trust, cooperation, and problem solving.

The team coach will also be able to select the topics for soccer specific portion of the camp. Our team training menu allows the coach to customize the camp to fit the needs of their team. We offer topics on both technique and tactics. This unique combination of soccer specific team training and team building make this camp the ideal team camp for teams wishing to reach higher levels.

The registration fee of $250 per player is all inclusive. This fee is less than half of residential camps and offers the same number of field hours + team building session.

The All Girls Camp features an entire female staff directed by Katherine Vettori, Head Coach Loyola College. Katherine works throughout the year to attract the top coaches. In the past, the camp has had youth coaches, ODP coaches, high school coaches, and college coaches. The All Boy's camp is directed by Soccer Source 360 director, John Dingle. Each member of the All Boy's Camp staff will have played the game at a high level, have a coaching license, and coach a youth team throughout the year.
